What we are learning

Can you believe it is almost Thanksgiving?
We will be spending this week discussing what it means to be Thankful and participating in Thanksgiving inspired learning activities.
We will be sorting shapes on turkey feathers and cutting out things we like to eat out of newspaper ads.

I look forward to talking to you about your child's progress at conferences!

Please make sure children are dressed appropriately. We will go outside if the feels like temperature is 25 degrees or higher.

Please let me know if you are planning on having your child's picture retaken or you missed picture day. Picture retake day is Nov.

At Home

Practice putting on outwear independently.

Books We Will Read

Thanks For Thanksgiving, There was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Turkey

Reminders

Please make sure you empty your child's backpack and folder everyday!
